

41

December 17, 1962

Mr. Johnson:

From among the various CIA special documents during the past week, the most interesting is the attached analysis of possible Soviet intentions with regard to its armed forces in Cuba. Since the presence of these forces in Cuba will always be a contentious issue, it might be well to note those items in the memorandum which set forth three possibilities available to the Soviets.

HLB